From the President...

The Field Club Fourth of July parade is one of my favorite events of the year. The participation and support the parade has had over the years is remarkable and a real indicator of the neighborhood's vitality. I hope you will have the chance to enjoy the parade as participant or spectator and be part of a great neighborhood tradition.

As many of you are aware, earlier this spring there were an unusual number of reports of theft or vandalism in the area. The response from Neighborhood Watch, Citizen Patrol, our City Councilman, and the Omaha Police Department has been excellent and has had, I believe, a real impact on the problem. There is no substitute for concerned and involved neighbors when it comes to keeping the area safe and two of your neighbors, Cynde McCall of Neighborhood Watch and Jeff Woolard of Citizens Patrol, have stepped up the fine efforts of their groups to address these issues. They deserve your support. Everyone in the neighborhood can contribute to the effort by being alert to activities in the neighborhood and by reporting every incident or suspicion so that the police and neighborhood groups have a full picture of the situation.

One neighborhood resource which I have always thought was very impressive and which you can share with friends inside and out of the neighborhood is the website, www.fieldclubneighborhood.homestead.com. The site has been maintained by Ed Quinn for a number of years and we are fortunate to have Ed's skills on this project. Please take a look, enjoy, and use it to spread the good word about your neighborhood.

Destination Midtown Identity Garden

New flowers have been planted in our Identity Garden at the south end of Turner Park. Stop by to enjoy those flowers at the corner of Turner Blvd and Poppleton Streets. Thanks to Val Himes for picking out the flowers and to Homeowners League Board members who planted the flowers for everyone to enjoy. The sign will be completed soon. Stop by to enjoy the beauty on your walks, rides and drives through our neighborhood.
