August 2007
Omaha, Nebraska

*The Newsletter of the Field
Club Homeowners League*

From the President...

Dear Neighbors,

By now, you should have received the 2007 Neighborhood Directory. This was a huge undertaking and Cynde McCall deserves much praise for coordinating the project. If you have found errors in the directory, please contact either Cynde or myself and your information will be updated. Thanks to all the volunteers who helped gather the data.

Many neighbors participated in National Night Out on August 7th. Thanks to the Neighborhood Watch Block Captains for getting the word out. Cynde McCall and Jeff Woolard made the rounds through the neighborhood passing out Popsicles and trinkets to the participants. The whistles were a big hit with the neighborhood children!

The FCHL Pool Party on August 17th was great fun despite the cloudy weather. Special thanks to Jill Nienaber for delivering invitations to every home in the neighborhood. For those of you who were unable to attend, I hope to see you there next year!

In a few weeks, a Neighborhood Assessment Survey will be delivered to your home by a FCHL Board member. Please take the time to complete the survey and return it to any of the Board Members or drop it off at the General Meeting on October 10th. Your input is very important and will be used to determine priorities for the FCHL Board.

I am looking forward to seeing many of you at the General Meeting in October. We will be celebrating the 60th Anniversary of the Field Club Homeowner's League.

Liz Hanlon

Longtime Residents will be Honored

Have you lived in the neighborhood for 25 years or longer? Do you know someone in the neighborhood who has been here 25 years or longer? Please call Liz Hanlon and let her know. The Homeowners League will honor all longtime residents at the annual meeting on October 10.

New Addition to the Field Club Newsletter

Want to know what is going on in the Midtown area outside Field Club, but don't know where to look? Interested in supporting other Midtown neighborhood association events? If the newsletter seems a bit thicker, it is. We are now delivering the Midtown Monitor in conjunction with the regular Field Club Monthly newsletter. This is a free publication that highlights events, associations, and news in the entire Midtown area. While there is no charge for our neighborhood to receive it, we don't want to give you something you aren't going to or don't want to read. Please take a moment to look through it, read it, and let us know if you think it's worthwhile. Please direct comments to Ali Britt via phone at 345-1855 or via email at omahabritt@yahoo.com.

Membership

Pay your dues now for the 2007 membership year! The membership year now runs from July 1 to June 30. If you paid your dues at the parade-you are good for this year! You may pay at the annual meeting if you still need to pay.

Home Tours

Our city is full of interesting homes and buildings to see. If you like home tours, consider the Bemis Park Parade of Homes on Sunday, September 23 from 12:00-5:00. Tickets and programs are available at the Augustana Lutheran Church at 38th and Lafayette. This is a tour of 10 homes, the Augustana Lutheran Church and the Salvation Army Durham-Booth Manor.

The Assistance League of Omaha, a non-profit, volunteer organization, will hold the 33rd Annual Christmas Caravan, in historic midtown Omaha, on Thursday, November 8th, 2007. Four private homes, decorated for the holidays by local area florists, will be open for tour with the pre-purchase of a $12.00 ticket or $15.00 at the door. This will be a great chance for members of your neighborhood community to visit homes on the National Registry of Historic Places.

Directory Error

There is an error on the first page in the 2007 directory. Under the Citizen Patrol contact number Jeff's phone number should be 342-7524. NOT 7534. Jeff has contacted the person at the listed number and apologized for the error.

Please notify Cynde McCall or Liz Hanlon of all other errors. Those errors will be corrected on the next printing.
